b Before you read, check these words/phrases with your teacher.

a lookalike | appear in a film | realise something for charity | a character | a costume

5 Cover the article. Then look at photos A and B. Which is the real Johnny Depp, do you think? Which is a lookalike?

A famous face?

You probably haven't heard of Danny Lopez, but his amazing resemblance to the actor Johnny Depp has made him one of the most successful celebrity lookalikes in the world.

Danny started acting at the age of seven and he's appeared in over 500 films, plays and TV shows as an actor and a musician. He first realised that he looked like Johnny Depp in 1984, when he saw Johnny in the film A Nightmare on Elm Street. "Now, almost every time I walk down the street, people confuse me with Depp," says Danny. (By the way, Danny's photo is the one on the right.)

These days Danny works as a professional Johnny Depp lookalike, making appearances at private parties and public events all over the world. He's worked for many famous companies and he's done a lot of work for charity. "It can be a fun job sometimes," says Danny. "The best thing I like about it is that it makes kids happy." He often dresses as characters from Depp's films, such as Captain Jack Sparrow, Willy Wonka or the Mad Hatter, and he's spent over $20,000 on costumes.

"I haven't met Johnny," says Danny, "but he knows about me." And an incredible coincidence is that Danny and Johnny were born on exactly the same day – 9th June 1963!

6 a Read the article and check your answer to 5. What do Danny Lopez and Johnny Depp have in common?

b Read the article again. Answer these questions.

2 When did he realise that he looked like Johnny Depp?

3 How many ads do American children see on TV every year?
4 How many TV murders do they see before they're 18?
5 What is TV Turnoff Week, do you think?

b Read the article and answer the questions in 6a. Were your guesses correct?

www.turnoffyourtv.net

KILL YOUR TV!

Could you live without TV for a week? That's what millions of people do every April and September as part of TV Turnoff Week, which is organised by anti-television groups around the world like NoTV.com and White Dot.

"Sure, TV programmes can be exciting or relaxing, especially when you're tired at the end of the day," says Rudy Matthews from NoTV.com, "but most of the time TV is just boring. We want people to turn off the TV for a week and do something more interesting instead."

You may be surprised by how much television we watch. The average American family watches TV for 6 hours and 47 minutes every day and British men watch about 27 hours a week (British women watch 'only' 24 hours). This means we spend over ten years of our lives watching TV – what a frightening thought!

Many parents are annoyed at the amount of TV advertising aimed at children and they're worried about the effect of television violence. Children in the USA watch 20,000 ads every year, and they see 40,000 murders on TV before they're 18. Teacher Julianne Wells thinks this is a problem. "American kids spend more time watching TV than in school, and I think that's very worrying."

TV Turnoff Week started in the USA in 1994 and it now happens twice a year in countries all over the world. More than 70 million people have turned off their TV for a week – so why don't you do the same?

7 Work in groups. Discuss these questions.

1 Do you think adults in your country watch too much TV? Why?/Why not?
2 Think about children you know. How much TV do they watch? Is it too much, do you think? Who decides what they watch?
3 Would you like to live without TV for a week? Why?/Why not?

GRAMMAR

4.1 Present Perfect for life experiences (1): positive and negative 4A 7 p31

- We use the Present Perfect for experiences that happened some time before now. We don't know or don't say when they happened: He's done a lot of work for charity.
- We use the Past Simple if we say exactly when something happened: Danny started acting at the age of seven.

POSITIVE

I/you/we/they + 've (= have) + past participle
he/she/it + 's (= has) + past participle

I've seen all of Johnny Depp's films.
He's spent over $20,000 on costumes.

NEGATIVE

I/you/we/they + haven't (= have not) + past participle
he/she/it + hasn't (= has not) + past participle

You probably haven't heard of Danny Lopez.
She hasn't seen 'Pirates of the Caribbean'.

TIPS • We often use never with the Present Perfect: I've never met Johnny Depp.

• To make past participles of regular verbs, add -ed or -d to the infinitive: play → played, watch → watched, etc. The Past Simple and past participles of regular verbs are the same. See GRAMMAR 2.1 for spelling rules.

• There are no rules for irregular past participles. There is an Irregular Verb List, p167.

4.2 Present Perfect for life experiences (2): yes/no questions with ever 4B 5 p32

- We use the Present Perfect to ask about people's experiences. We don't ask about when these experiences happened.
- We use the Past Simple to ask for more information about these experiences.
