The man behind KFC

Harland Sanders was born in the USA in 1890, but his childhood wasn't a happy one. His father died when he was only six. His mother didn't have much money so she needed to find a job. She went to work in a shirt factory and Harland stayed at home to look after his younger brother and sister. That was when he first learned to cook.

He left home when he was twelve and worked on a nearby farm. After that he had a lot of different jobs and in 1930 he became the manager of a service station in Corbin, Kentucky. He started cooking meals for hungry travellers who stopped at the service station, and soon people came only for the food. Harland couldn't serve everybody because the place was too small. So he decided to move to a 142-seat restaurant across the street where he could serve all his customers. Over the next nine years he developed the secret chicken recipe that made him famous.

The first official Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant didn't open until August 1952 and by 1964 there were more than 600 KFCs in North America. That year Sanders sold the company for $2 million, but he continued to work as KFC's public spokesman and visited restaurants all over the world. He travelled 250,000 miles every year until he died in 1980, aged 90. Six years later, PepsiCo bought KFC for $840 million.

There are now KFC restaurants in more than 110 countries round the world and KFC has 12 million customers every day – but the recipe is still a secret!

THAT'S INCREDIBLE!

Many of us experience strange coincidences at some time in our lives. For example, we might meet people we know in the most unexpected places. Perhaps when we're on holiday, thousands of miles from home, we suddenly see our neighbour on the beach. In fact, this type of coincidence is quite common, but there are some coincidences which are really incredible. Here are three of the strangest.

1 An unbelievable coincidence happened on a beach near Salem, USA. In 1965 a woman called Alice Blaise saved a four-year-old child from drowning in the sea. The boy's name was Roger Lausier. In 1974, on the same beach, Roger saved a man from drowning. The man he saved was Alice Blaise's husband.

2 If you're travelling by boat, the luckiest name to have is Hugh Williams. On 5th December 1660, a boat sank near Dover, England. There was just one survivor – a man called Hugh Williams. On 5th December 1767, another boat sank in the same area and the only survivor was another man called Hugh Williams. On 8th August 1820, a boat sank on the River Thames and there was only one survivor – his name was also Hugh Williams. The next extraordinary coincidence in this story happened on 10th July 1940. A man and his uncle were the only survivors after a fishing boat sank out at sea. They were both called Hugh Williams.

3 In the nineteenth century King Umberto I of Italy went to a small restaurant in Monza for dinner. The King noticed that he and the owner of the restaurant looked exactly like each other. They began talking and discovered some amazing coincidences. They were both born in the same town on the same day, 14th March 1844, and they both had wives called Margherita. Also Umberto became king on the same day that the restaurant owner opened his restaurant. However, there was one last unfortunate coincidence. On 29th July 1900, the restaurant owner died in a shooting accident. While someone was telling King Umberto I about this, a man shot and killed the king.

REAL WORLD

1.1 Starting conversations 1D 3 p12

people you know now	where people are from or live
Do you know (David)? How do you know (Matt and Carol)? Are you a friend of (Matt's)? How do you two know each other?	Where are you from? Whereabouts (in Spain)? Do you live near here?
meeting people in the past	people's jobs
Didn't we meet at (Carol and Matt's wedding)?	What do you do? You're (a lawyer), aren't you?

TIPS • When we think the answer to a question will be yes, we often use negative questions: Didn't we meet at Matt and Carol's wedding? (I think we did). We also use question tags: You're a lawyer, aren't you? (I think you are).

• When we want more information about where people live or where they are from, we ask Whereabouts?:
A Where are you from, Natalia? B I'm from Spain.
